IP Australia

Thank you for considering IP Australia as your next career move. Our purpose is to enable Australians to benefit from great ideas by providing a world-leading intellectual property (IP) system. Trade, investment and commercialisation all depend on an innovation ecosystem that is modern, effective and efficient and this ensures Australian industry is resilient and internationally competitive.

Innovation and a commitment to customer service excellence underpin our operations. We harness data and technology (including AI), to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of our products and services. We are committed to adaptation, embracing change and finding new ways to meet the current and future needs of the IP system – including through our in-house innovation lab, IPA Ventures. This requires a culture of curiosity, and openness to feedback.

Our people are our greatest asset. We're a high-performing agency, invested in building staff capability, creating career pathways and shaping a positive and inclusive culture, where everyone belongs. To ensure we attract the best and brightest minds, careers at IP Australia provide challenging opportunities to develop leadership and management skills, contributing to our position as leaders of IP rights administration in the region.

Our People Strategy and Diversity and Inclusion Strategy guide these commitments and set clear expectations for managers and employees, reinforcing the values and expected behaviours of all staff.

We recognise the benefits to individuals and teams of balancing work with everything else in life. We have a genuinely hybrid workplace and with this embedded flexibility, we deliver a more agile and inclusive environment that attracts and retains the best talent and supports wellbeing.

I'm extremely proud of the vibrant and inclusive culture we have built, and the range of networks that support our people to thrive in the workplace. The work we do at IP Australia makes a difference. It directly benefits Australia's economic prosperity by rewarding creativity, promoting investment and encouraging technological advancement.

I hope you'll join us!

Group Responsibilities

The Customer Experience Group (CEG) is responsible for understanding the customer journey and identifying and implementing customer service improvements across IP Australia. This is achieved by ensuring sound processes are in place for IP Rights processing; management and administration of the customer contact centre and customer feedback channels; the delivery of communication services; and effective management of externally facing digital products.

CEG ensures IP Australia's education and awareness activities are aligned, targeted and effective to facilitate a broader understanding of the value of, and access to the intellectual property system among our customers and stakeholders. The Group plays a lead role in building customer-centric capability across IP Australia by providing insight and expertise to inform better decision making. This drives high quality, effective customer service to meet customer needs both now and into the future.

Section Responsibilities

The Communications team supports IP Australia to effectively engage with its customers, key stakeholders, and its staff. The team specialises in managing external and internal communication. That includes engaging with the media and stakeholders through newsletters, media releases, targeted advertising and social media; and our staff through a range of internal channels including intranet news items, all staff virtual, hybrid and in person events, and written messages.

Our Opportunity

The Assistant Director, Internal Communications is responsible for leading a small team of communication professionals to deliver quality and timely internal communications advice and support. This includes working collaboratively across the organisation to plan, implement and evaluate effective communication solutions to achieve business objectives. The role requires a confident, organised and results driven professional who has outstanding judgment, can work autonomously and influence effectively, and translate priorities to plan, deliver and evaluate effective internal communication initiatives.

The successful applicant will need a high level of expertise and knowledge of contemporary communication practices. As a senior member of the Communications team, you will:

- Lead, mentor and inspire a small dynamic communication team
- Deliver and support engaging and innovative communication plans and internal events that align to IP Australia's corporate objectives
- Build and maintain collaborative working relationships with colleagues, managers, and key stakeholders
- Provide communication advice, support and guidance to business areas to successfully deliver business outcomes.

We are looking to fill this vacancy on an ongoing basis. Future positions may be offered on an ongoing or non-ongoing basis subject to operational requirements. Where a non-ongoing position is offered, the role will be filled for a specified term of up to 12 months.

At the end of the recruitment process, a merit pool of suitable candidates may be created. Those found suitable will be advised that they have been placed in the pool. The merit pool is valid for 18 months from the date the process was advertised. The merit pool may be used throughout the period to fill similar positions in the event positions become vacant.

Job specific capabilities

The successful applicant will have the following experience and capabilities

- Strong leaderships skills, emotional intelligence and the ability to develop, mentor and lead a team.
- Exceptional communication and stakeholder liaison skills.
- The ability to plan, prioritise and execute work to meet deadlines.
- The ability to be flexible and dynamic in response to changing priorities.
- Ability to develop and manage key relationships with a broad range of stakeholders
- Qualifications, and demonstrated working knowledge, in communications or related field is highly desirable.

It is expected that all IP Australia employees:

- demonstrate attitudes and behaviours responsive to workplace change (including participate in and encourage others to participate in change and contribute to successful outcomes)
- improve organisational performance through effective engagement with and management of risk within relevant sphere of influence
- establish clear expectations and create an environment to achieve stated goals and objectives, take ownership and honour commitments
- uphold and maintain the APS Values and Code of Conduct
- maintain an understanding of their/worker responsibilities under the Work Health & Safety Act 2011 (WHS Act) and a commitment to promoting a healthy and safe workplace.

Applicants are encouraged to refer to the attached Capability Framework documentation which outlines agency wide behavioural descriptors for the five core capabilities at this classification.

Eligibility requirements for employment at IP Australia

Under section 22(8) of the Public Service Act 1999, employees must be Australian citizens to be employed in the Australian Public Service (APS).

All applicants offered employment will be required to successfully undergo a pre-engagement screening check, even if they have a security clearance. The screening check involves reviewing your background & personal circumstances to minimise risks in giving access to IP Australia information/resources. This screening check is conducted in accordance with the Australian Government Protective Security Policy Framework requirements.

Some applicants may be able to obtain and maintain a security clearance at a specified clearance level – please check the vacancy information section for security clearance requirements.

The successful applicant must be willing to disclose all relevant and required information.

How to apply

Applications must be submitted through IP Australia's online recruitment system, IP Hire. If you have difficulties using IP Hire, please contact the Recruitment Solutions team on 02 6283 2567.

To apply for this vacancy, you are asked to complete the online application form which includes submitting:

- A one-page statement (max 750 words) outlining how your skills, knowledge, and experience make you the right person for the role. You should include details of relevant achievements/examples that demonstrate your suitability.
- A current CV detailing recent employment history which is relevant to the advertised position.
- The name and contact details of two referees.

Most of the communication you'll receive about this process will be via email so please take this into consideration when submitting your application. For example, it is best not to use a work email if you are going on leave as we cannot change the process to accommodate the non-receipt of emails.

How you will be assessed

IP Australia use competitive merit-based recruitment processes. Candidates will be assessed against the job specific capabilities and duties, so it is important you frame your response around these.

IP Australia has its own capability framework that provides clarity and consistency for a professional and highly competent workforce, now and into the future. There are five core capabilities, relevant to each classification, and a +1 technical capability which varies depending on the role.

IP Australia uses a range of assessment methods which may include application and resume assessment, interview and/or written assessment and/or psychometric assessment and the collection of a referee report/s.

Diversity and inclusion

We celebrate and champion diversity to ensure we reflect the community we serve, and pride ourselves on our inclusive culture. We welcome applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, people of all genders, people with disability, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, those who identify as LGBTQA+, mature aged employees and carers.

Reasonable adjustments

We want you to be able to shine in the assessment process so if you require any personalised adjustments to assist you to participate fully in this recruitment process, please indicate this in your application form (or by contacting the Recruitment Solutions Team).

A member of either the Recruitment Solutions Team or the Selection Panel will contact you to discuss your needs. All reasonable requests for adjustments will be facilitated if possible. Personalised adjustments are also available to employees who commence with IP Australia to assist them to perform the duties of their role to the best of their ability.

Any information provided is private and confidential and will only be used to provide accommodations and will in no way determine the outcome of an application.

RecruitAbility

The RecruitAbility scheme has been applied to this vacancy. RecruitAbility is a scheme which aims to attract and develop applicants with disability.

Applicants with disability who opt into the scheme; declare they have disability; and meet the minimum inherent requirements of the vacancy will be advanced to a later stage in the selection process. Merit remains the basis for engagement and promotion.
