Dear Owner,

Registration of your design is due to cease on 18 January 2022.

What this means

- If you would like your design rights to remain enforceable - you are required to pay a renewal fee.
- Once paid, registration of your design will continue - for an additional five year period.

What you need to do now

- Pay the renewal fee - by 18 January 2022. You can do so using our online services.

Things to be aware of

- Once the renewal due date has passed, your design will no longer have the benefit of any rights arising from registration.
- There is a 6 month grace period in which the renewal may still be paid before your design ceases, provided it is accompanied by the relevant late payment fee\(s\). In this case, if the renewal fee and any associated late fees are not paid by 18 July 2022 your design will cease.

Details of your design can be viewed on Australian Design Search.

Yours sincerely,

IP Australia
