

Application for Suspension of a Trade Mark Opposition for the Purpose of Negotiations

Privacy Notice

The personal information collected on this form is collected for the purposes of the Trade Marks Act 1995 (TM Act) (www.ipaustralia.gov.au/about-us/publications/ip-legislation/) and is protected by the Privacy Act 1988 (www.comlaw.gov.au/series/c2004a03712).

All personal information you provide on this form is handled in accordance with IP Australia's Privacy Policy (www.ipaustralia.gov.au/about-us/corporate/privacy-policy/).

The Privacy Policy contains relevant information, including:

- how you may seek access to and correction of the personal information we hold;
- how you may make a complaint about a breach of the Privacy Act and how we will deal with your complaint; and
- IP Australia's Privacy Contact Officer details.

Any personal information you provide will be used for the purposes of processing this form, and any opposition proceedings purposes, as provided under the TM Act. IP Australia may also contact you, using the contact details you have provided, to request your feedback on our products and services.

IP Australia may disclose your personal information to:

holders of relevant international trade marks; and the World Intellectual Property Organization in Switzerland, in accordance with the requirements of the Madrid Protocol (www.wipo.int/madrid/en/)

Once personal information is disclosed overseas, IP Australia will have no control over its subsequent use and disclosure.

IP Australia will publish your:

- name;
- address;
- address for service;
- address for correspondence (if applicable); and
- Trade Mark details and history in the Official Journal of Trade Marks, the Register of Trade Marks and Australian Trade Mark Search. Once information is available on the internet, IP Australia has no control over its subsequent use and disclosure. You should be aware that the information (including personal information) held in IP Australia's online IP Rights databases is also available on request, subject to our terms and conditions.

As far as your personal information is concerned:

- you may provide a post office box address if you do not want your residential address to be published; and
- if you do not provide the personal information required on the form, IP Australia may not be able to process this form.

IP Australia will not otherwise use or disclose your personal information without your consent, unless authorised or required by or under law.

Trade Marks Act 1995

Application for Suspension of a Trade Mark Opposition for the Purpose of Negotiations

Trade Mark No(s)

--	--	--	--

Applicant:

Opponent:

NOTE: The minimum suspension period that may be requested at any one time is six months. The maximum suspension period that may be requested at any one time is one year. The opposition will be suspended from the date this form is filed with IP Australia provided it is signed by both parties or their legal representatives. An existing suspension may be extended on a case by case basis.

Is this a continuation of an existing suspension? Yes No

Details of negotiations:

We the undersigned understand that proceedings are suspended on the following conditions:

- * The initial suspension period may be extended on a case by case basis provided the Registrar is satisfied negotiations have progressed such that there is a real likelihood of settlement.
- * One or both parties may request suspension be terminated early. If the Registrar is satisfied this is appropriate, she will either set a date for the relevant party to serve its evidence or direct the matter be set down for hearing/decision.
- * If suspension goes its full period and the opposition is still at the evidence stage, the Registrar will direct the relevant party to have all its evidence served within three months of the date on which suspension terminates.
